

Steve Morton

Senior Consultant

stevem@jmw.com.au

As a Senior Consultant with JMW for over 20 years, Steve Morton has provided consulting and executive development support to organizations, joint ventures and major projects engaged in a variety of strategic and leadership development initiatives in both the public and private sectors.

He has supported the successful delivery of large-scale, complex projects in the road, rail, water, mining, oil and gas and defense sectors. His expertise includes:

- Project and program formulation, implementation and delivery
- Organizational transformation
- Breakthrough project delivery
- Executive development and education
- Strategy Development and Implementation
- Executive coaching

As one of JMW's most senior consultants, Steve has supported owners and contractors in the delivery of programs and projects including:

Public Infrastructure and Utilities

- Port of Brisbane Motorway Project
- Ipswich Motorway Upgrade
- Rail Access Maintenance Programs
- TIDC K2RQ Rail Upgrade Project
- RTA Hume Highway Upgrade Program
- Windsor Road Upgrade
- Sydney Water SewerFix Program
- Sydney Water Networks Alliance
- TXU – Tenix Maintenance Program
- Energy Australian Energy2u Program
- GMW Water High Performance Program
- Christchurch Post Earthquake Infrastructure Rebuild Program
- Strategic Indigenous Housing Infrastructure Program Alliance

Defense

- Air Warfare Destroyer Program
- ANZAC Ship Through Life Support Program

Oil and Gas

- APLNG Project – Upstream
- BP MAP Alliance (Malaysia)
- BP – Sinopec SECCO Joint Venture (China)
- North West Shelf Gas expansion program
- Queensland Clean Fuels Project
- Sangu Alliance (Bangladesh)
- Wandoo Alliance

Steve's cultural transformation work with GMW Water won an international management consultancy award for human capital.

Prior to joining JMW, Steve spent ten years working for an international educational corporation specializing in organizational and individual performance breakthroughs. Before that, he had a 15 year career in Marketing Communications and Advertising. Steve has an Advertising and Marketing Diploma from the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology. He lives in Melbourne Australia. In his spare time, he is an avid cyclist.